

20TH EUROPEAN SYMPOSIUM ON POLYMER SPECTROSCOPY

September 11 to 14, 2016 - Dresden

The European Symposium on Polymer Spectroscopy (ESOPS) founded in 1969 in Cologne gives opportunity to share knowledge of current research and development on the spectroscopic characterization and analysis of polymer systems.

It is the concept of the ESOPS 20 conference to address both interesting highlighted polymer systems probed by selected spectroscopic techniques as well as interesting highlighted spectroscopic methods applied to selected polymer systems. Thus contributions from application to development of spectroscopic techniques in the framework of polymer science are welcome to be presented at ESOPS 20 bringing together not only specialized analytical and polymer scientists in academy and industry but also those aiming to be inspired by recent developments.
